Le vendeur doit, dans ce cas, indiquer clairement dans quelle mesure cette modification peut intervenir et sur quels éléments.

En tout état de cause, les modifications apportées à l'information préalable doivent être communiquées par écrit au consommateur avant la conclusion du contrat.

18° La date limite d'information du vendeur en cas de cession du contrat par l'acheteur ;

19° L'engagement de fournir, par écrit, à l'acheteur, au moins dix jours avant la date prévue pour son départ, les informations suivantes :

Article 99 : L'acheteur peut céder son contrat à un cessionnaire qui remplit les mêmes conditions que lui pour effectuer le voyage ou le séjour, tant que ce contrat n'a produit aucun effet.

Sauf stipulation plus favorable au cédant, celui-ci est tenu d'informer le vendeur de sa décision par lettre recommandée avec accusé de réception au plus tard sept jours avant le début du voyage. Lorsqu'il s'agit d'une croisière, ce délai est porté à quinze jours. Cette cession n'est soumise, en aucun cas, à une autorisation préalable du vendeur.

Article 100 : Lorsque le contrat comporte une possibilité expresse de révision du prix, dans les limites prévues à l'article 19 de la loi du 13 juillet 1992 susvisée, il doit mentionner les modalités précises de calcul, tant à la hausse qu'à la baisse, des variations des prix, et notamment le montant des frais de transport et taxes y afférentes, la ou les devises qui peuvent avoir une incidence sur le prix du voyage ou du séjour, la part du prix à laquelle s'applique la variation, le cours de la ou des devises retenu comme référence lors de l'établissement du prix figurant au contrat.

Article 101 : Lorsque, avant le départ de l'acheteur, le vendeur se trouve contraint d'apporter une modification à l'un des éléments essentiels du contrat tel qu'une hausse significative du prix, l'acheteur peut, sans préjuger des recours en réparation pour dommages éventuellement subis, et après en avoir été informé par le vendeur par lettre recommandée avec accusé de réception :

- soit résilier son contrat et obtenir sans pénalité le remboursement immédiat des sommes versées ;

- soit accepter la modification ou le voyage de substitution proposé par le vendeur ; un avenant au contrat précisant les modifications apportées est alors signé par les parties ; toute diminution de prix vient en déduction des sommes restant éventuellement dues par l'acheteur et, si le paiement déjà effectué par ce dernier excède le prix de la prestation modifiée, le trop-perçu doit lui être restitué avant la date de son départ.

Article 102 : Dans le cas prévu à l'article 21 de la loi du 13 juillet 1992 susvisée, lorsque, avant le départ de l'acheteur, le vendeur annule le voyage ou le séjour, il doit informer l'acheteur par lettre recommandée avec accusé de réception ; l'acheteur, sans préjuger des recours en réparation des dommages éventuellement subis, obtient auprès du vendeur le remboursement immédiat et sans pénalité des sommes versées ; l'acheteur reçoit, dans ce cas, une indemnité au moins égale à la pénalité qu'il aurait supportée si l'annulation était intervenue de son fait à cette date.

Les dispositions du présent article ne font en aucun cas obstacle à la conclusion d'un accord amiable ayant pour objet l'acceptation, par l'acheteur, d'un voyage ou séjour de substitution proposé par le vendeur.

Article 103 : Lorsque, après le départ de l'acheteur, le vendeur se trouve dans l'impossibilité de fournir une partie prépondérante des services prévus au contrat représentant un pourcentage non négligeable du prix honoré par l'acheteur, le vendeur doit immédiatement prendre les dispositions suivantes sans préjuger des recours en réparation pour dommages éventuellement subis :

- soit proposer des prestations en remplacement des prestations prévues en supportant éventuellement tout supplément de prix et, si les prestations acceptées par l'acheteur sont de qualité inférieure, le vendeur doit lui rembourser, dès son retour, la différence de prix ;

- soit, s'il ne peut proposer aucune prestation de remplacement ou si celles-ci sont refusées par l'acheteur pour des motifs valables, fournir à l'acheteur, sans supplément de prix, des titres de transport pour assurer son retour dans des conditions pouvant être jugées équivalentes vers le lieu de départ ou vers un autre lieu accepté par les deux parties.

Article 104 : Les dispositions des articles 95 à 103 du présent décret doivent obligatoirement figurer sur les brochures et les contrats de voyages proposés par les personnes visées à l'article 1er de la loi du 13 juillet 1992 susvisée.

They cannot be the subject of a request for reimbursement, even partial, from the establishment and the central reservation office, as soon as they are paid for, whether before arrival, on arrival, during or after the stay.

By default, the start date of the packages is the day following arrival. The establishment and the central reservation office cannot be held responsible for any disagreement with the client on this rule unless they have received an explicit written request from the client to which they have also replied in writing.

If a person no longer participates in the stay, or if the clients (or a person) leaves the establishment in a hurry during their stay, no refund, even partial, will be possible. The client must ensure that he/she has taken out the cancellation insurance offered by the booking office and validated at the time of confirmation or any other personal insurance to cover these costs. The cancellation insurance offered by us cannot be added after the confirmation of the option.

PRICES AND PROMOTIONS

Our prices are inclusive of all taxes and include the provision of accommodation, charges included (water, electricity, heating), with the exception of the tourist tax, payable directly on site.

In the event of an increase in VAT, the Chalet des Neiges Group reserves the right to apply this increase to the rates without prior notice and on the application of the new rate.

The ski lift prices are indicated without the ski insurance (Carré Neige or Assur'Gliss). The latter must be taken out at your request at the same time as your reservation or at the lift pass office in the resort concerned. The services sold as ski passes are for periods of 6 consecutive days. It is imperative that you read the general conditions of use of ski passes with the ski lift company in the resort. In order to benefit from the children's, seniors' or family rates, it is compulsory to provide us with the supporting documents requested by the ski lifts. Without proof, we will not provide passes. We are not responsible for any statements made in this regard. Free ski passes: Access to the ski areas requires a ticket even if it is free. We will not issue these passes. You must go to the ticket office with an official receipt so that the lift company can issue it to you. Early departures and unused ancillary services (such as ski passes, ski lessons, prepaid restaurant cards, etc.) will in no case be subject to any financial compensation or discount.

Promotions and discounts are not retroactive and cannot be accumulated. If you modify your reservation after the end of a promotional offer, the new rates will be applied without compensation.

TOURIST TAX

The tourist tax, collected on behalf of the local authorities, is not included in our rates. Its amount varies according to the municipality. It is paid on site. The amount of the tourist tax is likely to vary according to the legal provisions which could be taken. The establishment will automatically pass on any variation in this tax, without this being the subject of any claim.

RECEPTION AND HANDING OVER OF THE KEYS

The reception is at the reception where the stay has been booked. The keys are handed over on presentation of the voucher or booking form certifying the terms of the booking and payment of the stay. The client undertakes to take possession of the premises on the dates and times agreed and to pay the deposit on the same day by credit card imprint. In the event that these conditions are not met, the establishment reserves the right to refuse to hand over the keys and will be entitled to re-let the flat within 24 hours. The accommodation is available on the day of arrival from 5 pm and must be vacated by 10 am on the day of departure. In the event of departure after 10 a.m., a surcharge equivalent to the price of an extra day's occupancy will be charged to the client. Outside the opening hours of the reception of our establishments, the client must contact the reception without delay in order to organise his reception, in suitable time slots accepted by the establishment. In the event of a reception problem, in particular to find the flat or to collect the keys, the client cannot claim any compensation and Chalet des Neiges cannot be held responsible in any way.

A deposit will be requested at the time of handing over the keys by pre-authorisation on a bank card (Visa or Mastercard only) for a sum of €500 per flat up to 6 people and €1000 per flat from 8 people. In case of arrival outside the opening hours of the reception, the client is requested to come by himself the next morning to the reception of the residence, during the opening hours, in order to proceed with the formalities of handing over the keys.

Bills (extras, tourist taxes, bread delivery service, etc.) must be paid at the reception before the client's departure. In the event of non-payment at the time of departure, the establishment reserves the right to deduct from the deposit the sums due as payment for services. A receipt will then be sent to the email address used by the client when making the reservation.

STATE OF THE PREMISES, CLEANLINESS AND DETERIORATION

The Chalet des Neiges group makes every effort to receive its clients in the best possible conditions of quality, cleanliness and standing. However, it cannot guarantee an immediate and perfect result and it is left to the initiative and diligence of the client, upon arrival, to make an inventory of the flat and to report to the reception desk within 24 hours of arrival any complaint concerning the cleanliness or the state of the equipment in the flat he occupies. After this period, the client will have tacitly recognised the accuracy of the inventory and the conformity of the premises and the equipment and his objections will no longer be admissible (except for new malfunctions which must be reported immediately and on which Chalet des Neiges undertakes to do everything in its power to intervene as soon as possible). The client must immediately report to the reception any deterioration or breakage that occurs during his stay, whether the breakage is due to his own fault or that of a third party. The client will not be entitled to any compensation in the event of necessary intervention by the technical service in the flat during his stay. None of the objects installed in one flat may be moved to another. Otherwise, these objects will be considered as missing and treated as such. The client will be responsible for the objects contained in the rented flat and will be obliged to reimburse the missing or damaged objects, on the basis of their price, or the value of their restoration and/or the price of the necessary cleaning (particularly for bedding). In the event of damage to the premises, both to the private areas and to the common areas of the building (walls, ceilings, paintwork, sanitary equipment or other), the client will also be required to pay for the necessary repairs, according to the estimates drawn up by Chalet des Neiges. These costs of repairs, work, cleaning costs, etc. may be deducted from the deposit left by the client on arrival and Chalet des Neiges may pursue the recovery of the surplus, as well as any compensation corresponding to the real damage. At the time of departure and for the establishments where the end-of-stay cleaning is included, the client must leave the flat in a suitable state of order and cleanliness (furniture put back in place, fridge and dishwasher emptied and cleaned, dustbins emptied and cleaned, kitchen returned clean). If this is not done, a fixed sum of 250 € will be charged. For residences where the end-of-stay cleaning is not included, the client has the choice of doing it himself (furniture put back in place, fridge and dishwasher emptied and cleaned, dustbins emptied and cleaned, kitchen left clean, floors vacuumed and washed), or subscribing to the cleaning package with a supplement to be paid according to the category of the flat reserved. In this case, the furniture must be put back in place, the fridge and dishwasher must be emptied and cleaned, the dustbins emptied and cleaned, and the kitchen must be left clean.

SECURITY

The client must ensure that the doors and windows of his/her flat are closed at all times and in particular when he/she is absent. Chalet des Neiges cannot be held responsible in the event of theft, loss or damage to personal belongings, whether in the flat or in the residence's private car park or communal areas, including the ski room. Similarly, customers must not leave any objects or equipment on the balconies of their flat or in the communal areas of the establishment (reception, corridors, garages, etc.) and must ensure that their ski locker is closed. Chalet des Neiges cannot be held responsible for any failure to comply with these instructions. In the event of a break-in, Chalet des Neiges can only be held liable if the client immediately informs reception and lodges a complaint with the gendarmerie within 24 hours, and only within the conditions and limits of the comprehensive insurance policy taken out by Chalet des Neiges. The client acknowledges that he has taken out all the necessary insurance policies to cover himself and the persons and animals accompanying or visiting him, and for which he remains liable to Chalet des Neiges and to third parties.

We remind you that Chalet des Neiges cannot be held responsible for any personal belongings left inside your flat when you leave. In accordance with article 6 of decree no. 95-949 of 25 August 1995, please note that sleeping in a high bed is not suitable for children under the age of 6.

SWIMMING POOL AND RELAXATION CENTRE

Swimming pool and relaxation centre rules : Unaccompanied minors are not permitted in the relaxation centres and/or swimming pools of our establishments. Correct dress is required (swimming costume). To prevent any risk of accident, bathers are also forbidden from running on the beaches, diving into the pools, jostling each other or pushing other people into the pools. Animals, footwear, food and drink are strictly forbidden in the pool area and our relaxation centres. The establishment declines all responsibility in these areas. It reserves the right to refuse access to the swimming pool and relaxation centres to anyone who does not comply with these rules. Depending on the health regulations in force, access to the swimming pools and relaxation centres may be limited in terms of number of people and length of stay, or simply closed.

Those responsible for children are asked to ensure that they do not enter areas reserved for staff members. Any incident caused by a child will engage the responsibility of the adult in charge.

The rented premises are for the exclusive use of pleasure accommodation. The customer shall enjoy the rented premises and furniture with all due respect, in particular for his neighbours. Chalet des Neiges therefore reserves the right to refuse to accept any additional persons. The use of cots for children under 3 years of age is limited according to the size of the flat.

In the event of disturbance at night and after two unsuccessful warnings by the residence managers, Chalet des Neiges reserves the right to keep the client's deposit and/or to have the client evicted from the accommodation, if necessary with the help of the police, this eviction putting a definitive end to the client's stay, without any compensation for the client.

BEHAVIOUR

Customers must be courteous and respectful towards staff and other customers. Any verbal or physical violence, inappropriate behaviour or comments of a sexual, sexist, racist, anti-Semitic or homophobic nature, as well as any form of harassment, may result in sanctions. In the event of non-compliance with these rules of good conduct, the residence reserves the right to punish the customer in accordance with the seriousness of the offence, to contact the police and reserves the right to lodge a complaint in the event of extreme behaviour.

WIFI

The WIFI speed provided in the flats (for flats with this service) is under no circumstances for professional use, but for private use, and limited to one computer per flat. We cannot guarantee a constant speed and connection, particularly due to the technical context of your stay.

You remain responsible for your pet and any inconvenience or damage caused by it. Pets are not allowed on our premises without their owners and must be kept on a lead.
